

Donor Relations & Development Manager

Desired Start Date: Mid to late October 2022

Application deadline: October 2, 2022 at 11:59pm PST.

Complete applications (see details below) should be emailed to careers@bccla.org with the subject line "Donor Relations & Development Manager" and are due by 11:59pm PST on October 2, 2022.

A complete application, in one combined PDF, includes:

- Resume
- Cover letter.
- Two professional samples that can consist of the following (with fundraising communications preferred): fundraising emails, fundraising direct mail, campaign materials, campaign emails, blog posts, supporter communications (e.g. newsletters, monthly donor update), or web pages. These samples should come from your experience (paid or volunteer); we are not requesting that you write new materials to submit with your application.

About the Position:

This full-time (40 hours/week) role requires a talented project manager who is ready to lead BCCLA's grassroots donor fundraising, member relations efforts, and supporter database management. This role also supports issue campaigns and public education efforts in times of high intensity.

In this role, you will supervise the Donor Relations Coordinator, work closely with the Communications and Outreach Manager and report to the Director of Engagement and Development. The Donor Relations & Development Manager works both independently and cooperatively in a team spirit, while maintaining the flexibility to adapt to the changing circumstances and priorities of a small, dynamic organization. The right candidate will enjoy a variety of tasks from writing fundraising campaigns to database management, data analytics, donor stewardship, and member outreach.

This position is based at our office in Vancouver at #306-268 Keefer St, on unceded Indigenous lands belonging to the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and səliłwətaʔl/Selilwitulh (Tseil Waututh) nations.

In light of COVID-19, this position will work partially in-person, in compliance with WorkSafeBC guidelines for in-office work during the pandemic, and partially remotely. A laptop and access to all required platforms will be provided.

We anticipate interviews will be conducted by BCCLA staff through video-conference in September.

What We Offer:

Compensation: Salary is based on the BCCLA's Salary Structure, with a commitment to wage parity across manager-level positions within the organization. The starting salary for this position is $60,000-$62,000 per annum.

BCCLA also offers a holistic and competitive work package:

- Unionized environment. This position is part of the bargaining unit with a collective agreement anticipated to be reached by early 2023.
- Room for salary growth over the lifetime of all staff positions
- Annual salary progression for all staff, and regular COLA increases.
- Comprehensive health benefits that includes extended health and dental plan for all staff, spouses and dependents.
- Life insurance, Long-term Disability Insurance, and AD&D for staff, family and dependents included within health benefits.
- Health benefits starting immediately and not dependent on completion of probationary period.
- 20 days of paid Annual Vacation, plus an additional 1-2 week December office closure.
- 10 Statutory and 1 other paid days off every year.
- 15 days of paid Sick Leave, including sick days, family care days, and personal wellness days.
- A generous parental leave policy including a parental leave top-up.
- Annual professional development funding for each staff.
- Team-wide professional development and training.
- Team-wide staff celebrations and staff appreciation.
- A family-friendly, child-friendly, and dog-friendly work environment that supports flexible work arrangements and time in lieu arrangements with an emphasis on work life balance.

- A workplace where your experience and voice are valued.
- A staff team of diverse backgrounds that is committed and passionate about civil liberties, human rights, equity and justice.

The BCCLA is committed to ensuring that equity, diversity, and inclusion are priority considerations, including in building a workplace that honours the particular experiences and expertise of communities marginalized through state violence and social oppression. The BCCLA strongly encourages applications from all qualified Indigenous people, Black people, immigrants and refugees, people of colour, working class people, and LGBTQ+ people. Applicants are encouraged to self-identify, should they feel comfortable doing so, in their cover letter and are invited to share how their lived experience would inform their approach and ethics in this position.

About the BCCLA:

The BC Civil Liberties Association (BCCLA) is a non-partisan, not-for-profit national leader whose mission is to promote, defend, sustain, and extend civil liberties and human rights. We recognize that such rights are inalienable and necessary for the flourishing of individuals and human society. The BCCLA is the oldest and most active civil liberties and human rights group in Canada. The BCCLA has been actively advancing human rights and civil liberties through litigation, law reform, community-based legal advocacy, and public engagement and education for the last half century. Though we are based in BC, our work is national in scope with legal interventions and law reform advocacy across Canada.

BCCLA focuses on the relationship between people and the state, and the ways in which the state can limit or advance human rights and liberties. BCCLA's work pays particular attention to the needs of vulnerable individuals and oppressed communities, who would otherwise have difficulty getting redress for violations and limitations on their rights despite being the most susceptible to state regulation and violations of their fundamental rights. We recognize that liberty, dignity and equality are mutually-reinforcing.

With a mandate that includes work on police accountability, government transparency, democratic rights including freedom of expression, prisoners' rights, patients' rights, privacy rights, surveillance and national security issues, immigration detention, and criminal legal reform, we are one of the most vibrant and visible advocacy groups in Canada. The BCCLA is a small team with a big reach, and we want you to be a part of our work.

The BCCLA is committed to building an inclusive workplace that honours the particular experiences and expertise of historically marginalized communities. The BCCLA strongly encourages applications from all qualified applicants, and applicants from oppressed communities including Indigenous people, people of colour, refugees, working class people, people with disabilities, and LGBTQ+ people are encouraged to apply and we welcome them to self-identify, should they feel comfortable in doing so, in their cover letter.
